

Congress

ISAIAH AND THE TWELVE JESAJA UND DIE ZWÖLF

Referenten:

Franz Sedlmeier (Augsburg)

Isaiah and Hosea: aspects of convergence and difference

Uwe Becker (Jena)

Isaiah and Amos: social prophecy in Isaiah and the Book of the Twelve

James Nogalski (Waco, Texas)

The concluding section of Zephaniah and its relationship to Isaiah

Burkard M. Zapff (Eichstätt)

Second Isaiah and the Twelve

Richard Bautch (Austin, Texas)

Isaiah 10 as an intertext that informs a unified reading of Zechariah 11

J. Todd Hibbard (Detroit, Michigan)

Zechariah 14 and the concluding section of Isaiah

ÖFFENTLICHER FESTVORTRAG:

WELCHE EXEGESE BRAUCHT DIE KIRCHE?

Most Reverend Dr. Rudolf Voderholzer, Bishop of Regensburg

Christopher B. Hays (Pasadena, California)

Intertextual connections between Isaiah 24-27 and the Book of the Twelve reconsidered

Ndikho Mtshiselwa (Pretoria, South Africa)

Edom in the books of Isaiah and Obadiah

Joachim Eck (Eichstätt)

The Song of the Unfruitful Vineyard: its position in the Book of Isaiah and its reception in late layers of Isaiah and the Twelve

Carol Dempsey (Portland, Oregon)

Divine and Human Kingships in the Books of Isaiah and the Twelve: A Kaleidoscope of Conflicting Yet Unifying Images Destined to Transform the World Order

Archibald van Wieringen (Tilburg, Netherlands)

The Oracles Against the Nations in Isaiah, Amos and Zephaniah

Hugh G.M. Williamson (Oxford, United Kingdom)

The Day of the Lord in the Book of Isaiah and the Book of the Twelve

31 May - 3 June 2018

Collegium Willibaldinum,

Leonrodplatz 3, 85072 Eichstätt

Veranstalter: Burkard M. Zapff und Joachim Eck, Lehrstuhl für Alttestamentliche Wissenschaft